MAYOR

September 24, 2005

Greetings!

Welcome to the Fourth Annual NK Challenge Regatta. The City of Philadelphia is proud to be the host city for this great regatta, which has been organized for such an important cause.

Rowing is a Philadelphia tradition dating back to the 19th Century and assuredly giving back to the community by Philadelphians predates the sport. Combining both has helped to produce generous rewards for a new generation of Philadelphia athletes.

I congratulate Nielsen-Kellerman, a local company that produces high quality performance electronics for the sport of rowing. While their products are impacting the sport worldwide, their benevolence is benefiting disadvantaged youth in the Philadelphia area.

Special thanks to the many volunteers and dedicated officials who help each year to make the NK Challenge Regatta such an enormous success.

With kind regards, I am
